Dear Crazy Quilters,

Welcome to winter and to getting into those UFO's. I am happy to say I finally finished a UFO. It's a quilt I started many (many) years ago, sweet wonky flowers on a white background and scrappy. I am happy that it is done and will check out what else is looming on my wall of UFO's.

I have been working on my bejeweled boxes. I am using mostly glass, porcelain (ceramic) and tin containers. I found some small pill boxes, trinket boxes, old small jewelry boxes and such that were hidden around the house and have bejeweled them. It is fun and something new for me. Thanks to those of you who donated your old jewelry to me. I love the fact that I am recycling and repurposing these treasures. I think they will sell really well at the American Rose Society Gift Shop.

I hope all of you are able to get your Covid Vaccine without too much hassle. Members I have talk with have said they are able to get scheduled without much trouble and for those who have received their shots say that the process has been a snap. My husband and I got our first vaccine this week and we both were impressed with the way it went. Keeping my fingers crossed that all of you have a good experience.

Our CQ Board continue to meet via Zoom once a month. This month was a short meeting and not much to report on. We are doing our research on the machine and frame that has been donated to us to help offset our income losses of this past year. More to come on this later. Nothing new on when we might gather again as we are all watching what's new in Covid Land, this will be two years of our lives we will never forget.

Stay safe and be well.

Happy Quilting

Kathy, CQ

Treasurer's Report - Pam Elliott

Currently we have about $360 in our bank account. The savings account is at $2528 and change.

We paid for our speaker last month and will be paying for our Post Office box plus our insurance will soon be coming up (and before you ask -- if we drop it because we aren't meeting, it will cost more to get a 'new' policy. It is best to keep what we have)

Report from the Guild Board

The Board met via Zoom and these are the things we decided:

pay our bills

dues will be due in the month of April

we are looking into 'selling' a donated quilting machine & frame, which are being donated to us to help with funds, as soon as we have a price. The sale info will go to our own members plus to other guilds.

Retreats - Janine Walker

Because of the Coronavirus, retreats have been cancelled. Gwinwood is only hosting groups that live together, and outside activities. And no, a tent and extension cord won't make the grade. Watch for updates here.

Contact Janine at 253-941-4958 or 206-242-8335 (text also) if you have questions.

Places to Go . . . Quilts to See = Road Trip!

This website has lots of quilt shows listed AND right now a lot of them that are up-coming have no dates. You are welcome to check it out for yourself: Quilt Shows in Washington or Quilt Shop Navigator

Please check online to see if the show is going on – Shows are canceled/postponed.

Year Round – Kittitas County Barn Quilt Trail: a self-guided driving tour that celebrated the art of the American quilt and the strong, resourceful women who created them. More information at Barn Quilts

Novelty Quilts -- there are still a few floating around out there...

If you have one, please contact either Sharon or Kathy and we will make arrangements to pick up your finished quilt.

A quilt on the bed is worth two in the head!

Quilt Block

(ok, ladies, I'm sorry for the misunderstanding - these blocks are not block-of-the-month nor are they for community service blocks....they are for fun, just for you!)

I got this block from my friend, Teresa, at Cuppa Tea Quilting in Priest River, Id. Follow the link for the actual directions Wonky Star It is from QOV and is for the 2021 block drive. I know we have several members who contribute to QOV.
