Tina's Talk

Dear Ladies,

I joined the guild for two reasons.

One, to be able to learn more about quilting.

Two, to make quilts for people in need.

I excited to say I am doing both. In the months to come we as a guild are going to help more people in need. Thank you for your willingness to help.

Have a great month!

Tina

Business Meeting Minutes – May and June 2018

May

The meeting was called to order by the President, Tina McCarter.

Guests were welcomed. Kitty, a resident of Avalon Care Center, was acknowledged as well. Lynn Bolster, Covington Quilt Guild, was present to sell tickets for their beautiful 2018 raffle quilt. Tina advised that if you have not paid your dues, they are due now. Membership Chairman, Sharon Meeds, will be taking the money.

MINUTES: A correction was noted that a quilt was made by Pat Larson and not Colleen Lindstad. A motion was made by Sharon, seconded by Francis, to approve the minutes as corrected.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Jill Ellis has beautiful rectangle blocks for this month. She asked that the blocks from last month be turned in a.s.a.p. The winner for last month drawing is Cheryl Belcher. Congratulations!!

GUILD IN-HOUSE RAFFLE: Discussion on the Guild In House Raffle, resulted regarding tickets. Xenia volunteered to make tickets. Someone suggested that we just use the roll of duplicate tickets that we have lots of. It was agreed that the duplicates would be used like we use for the raffles. This is the Guild In-House Raffle that will sell for $5 a ticket.

BUDGET: Kay Thomas questioned why the budget shows so low for the last year for membership. Sharon explained that if monies were paid before the fiscal year, May to May that those renewal monies would be counted in the prior year actual. A motion was made by Xenia, seconded by Margaret to approve the budget as published. Motion passed

NEW BUSINESS: Tina made an announcement that due to Char Peterson's health issues she is resigning as Secretary. She asked if anyone would be willing to step up. Jill Ellis nominated Diane Keller (who was not present).

SHOW AND TELL: 8 members showed items they had made. Jill Ellis and Sue Hopper shared that they drove to Portland for a ½" square triangle seminar/talk.

2018 RAFFLE QUILT: Tina, announced that Marianna and Anita have agreed to take on the quilt. They will need others to take the quilt to other Guilds to sell tickets. They are not agreeing to host that portion. Jill offered to take the quilt to the Covington Guild to sell tickets. Marianna stated that she does not want to shepherd the quilt, but she will take the quilt to 1 or 2 other guild meetings. Prior shows that we participated in were discussed.

The Secret Garden, the Enumclaw Show (which she does not feel was worth our time – we broke even on the Enumclaw show), the Milton Tea House was the same weekend as the Secret Garden. Hopefully that will change this year. The Puyallup Farmers Market parking was far away; we would need to bring our canopy. Marianna recommends attending this one. She advised that we are on standby for the NW Quilt Festival in November.

A pattern for a tote bag was available with sticks for anyone that wants it.

RETREAT: Janine Walker, Retreat Chairman, noted that the upcoming retreat, June 22-25, Friday through Monday has openings. Cost is $42.50 per day for overnight plus the cost of sharing in cost and preparing one meal. Those that come for the day pay $25.

JUNE PRESENTATION AND CLASS:

Roxanne Carter will be our June 28th will be our Program meeting presentation. Due to her schedule, she was only able to come the 4th Thursday. She quilts and designs many quilts monthly and will be having a trunk show. The next day, she will be teaching a quilt class where we have a choice of quilts to make. Char Peterson, past Vice President, presented the 4 options. Class charge is $45. The class will start promptly at 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Milton Activity Center. Roxanne has a minimum in her class of 10 so once 10 people have paid and we can confirm the class, the supply sheet and cutting directions will be mailed. Please mail checks to Char's apartment address, 11100 SE Petrovitsky Rd, Apt H207, Renton WA 98055. Make checks payable to Crazy Quilters of Federal Way.

BIRTHDAY Challenge:

Sharon, in lieu of Diane, reminded the guild that the Birthday Challenge ends in June. Colors/flowers for your birthday month were announced. They will be displayed and voted on at the June 14th meeting, A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by President, Tina, seconded by Joleen.

Motion passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Char Peterson

From our VP's

All are welcome at our Crazy Quilters annual potluck (YUM) picnic. It will be held at Steel Lake Park in Federal Way on July 12, 2018. We will be at Site 3, which is the site closest to the main parking lot. We have the site from 4:00pm to dusk. I plan on getting there about 4:30ish to start setting up, so come when you can.....Looking forward to good food, good conversation, good friends and good weather.

We will be tying quilts at our program meeting in August. We have plenty of quilt sets (top, batting and back) ready to go for the fair and do not need to get any more ready. We will have quilts ready to tie. Should you want to bring a 70 x 90 quilt to tie for Mary's Place, feel free to do so (You will need to have it ready with top, batting and back). Looking forward to a night of good conversation while we are getting some quilts ready to go. See you there

Retreats – Janine Walker

If you've never been to a Crazy Quilters retreat, you don't know what you're missing. We have a great big, well-lighted air-conditioned sewing area. The bedrooms have new beds. The building is surrounded by woods and wildlife. The last time I was there the mama deer and her two babies strolled through the area. The lake is within walking distance. The new staff are very accommodating, and working hard to make sure we feel taken care of. Lacey is about a 45 minute drive from Federal Way. Our next two retreats are Sept. 28 thru Oct 1, and November 12 - 15. Sign-up sheets will be at the meetings, or email or call Janine. The cost is $42.50 per day, $25 if you just come down to spend the day and sew with the rest of us. You would be assigned to help with one meal, sharing costs. We often have a masseuse (or two) who come to help us relax. Sew (or not) at your own pace, shop the local quilt shops, sample the nearby restaurants at lunchtime, have a long weekend with new and old friends. Join us. The signup sheet will be at meetings, or contact Janine 253.941.4958 or janinew13@yahoo.com
