Dear Crazy Quilters,

Well here we are in June, the sun has been out a lot, Yeah! And the flowers and roses are blooming. Jeff and I have been working very hard to get the garden ready for your visit in July. We hope all of you can attend. CRAZY QUILTERS PICNIC: Thursday July 23rd at 6:00pm, this is the usual date of our CQ Business Meeting. We will eat, chat and enjoy the gardens and be able to catch up on what everyone has been doing. Social distancing will be encouraged so bring your masks. I think being outside we will be OK...probably won't hug though, might have to save that until our August meeting J. Bring your favorite dish to share and something to drink, I will have Coffee and Juice available.

I finally got to quilt yesterday, been so busy outside I haven't done any of my "in the house" projects. I quilted a baby quilt for a friends new Grandson. I used a panel for the center and went crazy on the quilting...so much fun to get back to that. As many of you have done and probably are still doing, Masks were a priority. Janine and I delivered 155 Fruit and Vegetable Masks to Susie the Director of the Des Moines Farmers Market. I still have about 100 to finish but these will get them started and as Susie said "we have all summer". The masks turned out so cute and well received at the market. The photo I have, show's some of the masks (the elastic looks curly because we washed the masks after they were made) THANK YOU all for helping with your donated fabric, Crazy Quilters are just the best and I cannot thank you enough for helping get this done for the Market. We had such a variety of prints and vibrant color, so much fun to make them. Thank You, Thank You.

Don't forget to get your CQ Challenge quilt done, they are due at the July Business Meeting...which is our Picnic. Haven't quite figured out how to do that but for now plan on bringing your quilt to show...note: we may postpone that until the August meeting but we might not...I will keep you posted on that. I hope all of you have been keeping safe and happy during this unusual time I look forward to getting together with friends and family and seeing all of you soon.

Kathy

A reminder for all of us!

We need to wear our name tags at all meetings.

There will be a name-tag (click the link) drawing at all meetings, both Program and Business.

It's a Novel-ty Challenge

the deadline is still the end of July!

Our next Quilt Challenge has begun!!

Everyone received a package of between 4-5 yards of material, with one of the pieces being the designated “novelty” print they are to use. Some people seemed thrilled with their brown bag choices, others surprised, others wishful (mostly wishing they had somebody else's) – but it was the luck of the draw.

The material given needs to make the front of the quilt and the finished quilt needs to be at least 42x50-60 inches (70x90 if you'd like yours to go to Mary's Place).
The contest is over and finished quilts need to be returned on July 23 (it's the July business meeting).

The following people are participating:

Bobbie Mowery
Joan Bassen
Karen Reynolds
Cheryl Belcher

Tina McCarter
Mary Ann Rankin
Maddie Hall
Carol Berge? (my note just says Carol)

Eileen Peacher
Kathy Wyckhoff
Frances Painter

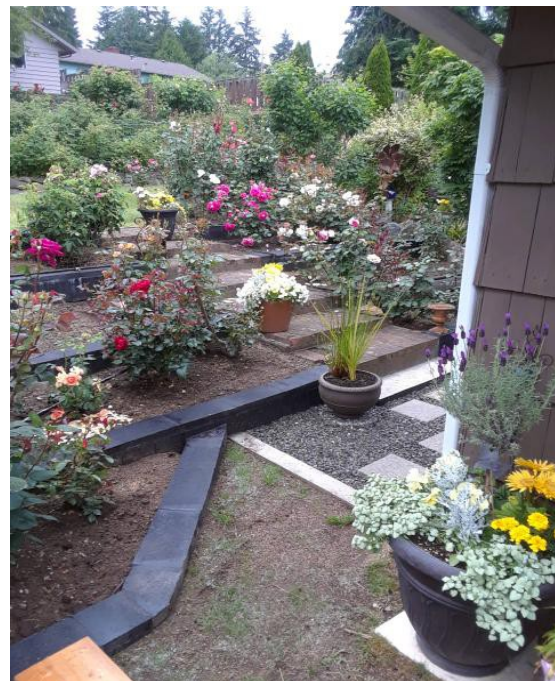

Susanna Gantt
Laura Coy

Thank you for the masks!!!

Susie wrote: As Covid 19 took over our lives, your group of quilters, friends and probably strangers jumped right in to help. The Des Moines Waterfront Farmers Market is a grateful recipient as we cannot open safely without face coverings. Thank You and everyone for your time, effort and love. Susie

Kathy is getting ready for us at her house.....

This is our current list of "Dues Paid". If your name is not on the list as paid and you sent a check in, please contact Pam Elliott.

If your name has a yellow (gray) highlight next to it, we have no record of receiving your check. Please remit your dues now. Otherwise we will assume that you will not be a member this year. And, unfortunately paying later, ladies, will not get you in at a 'partial year' rate.....sorry, but no.
